

“The Cottage School has prepared our son for a successful transition to public school. The school’s focus on the arts, problem-solving, literature, and creativity has instilled in him a confidence in learning that he has carried with him and demonstrates every day in his studies, with teachers and among friends.”-
Wayne and Amy Dietrich